(Associated Fress.)

Buenos Aires, Tuesday July 2.—The feature of the Argentinian independence day celebration here today was the absence of German flags, which had been numerous on other national holidays. Even important German newspaper flew only Argentine flags over their buildings. In the first year of the war German flags were numerous on Argentine feast days. In the second year there were fewer flags of that country and today there was none.

ESCAPES FROM GERMANY

Illinois Man Captured at Verdun, Gets Away. (Associated Press.)

Paris, July 10 .- Corpl. Everett Buckley, of Kilburne, ill., an aviator in the French service, who was captured by the Germans at Verdun, has escaped from Germany. According to a dispatch from Zurich to Le Journal he reached Switzerland Tuesday morning.

When Corpl. Buckley, who was a member of the LaFayette flying corps, first disappeared last September, it was reported he had been killed. Paris friends denied this and in November it was ascertained that Buckley was a prisoner in Germany after having been wounded.
